socialplatform

asked people

What would be missing - for people - if civil society organisations weren't around?

Rights protection & a voice for minorities

Organised representation & participation in public policy-making

Diversity of solutions

"The EU would be like a big farm with vulnerable sheep, with no watchdogs or walls to protect them!"

Some services not offered by governments

Community engagement

www.socialplatform.org